FINDING	There being a finding/verdict of <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> GUILTY , defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:
----------------	--

Conspiracy in violation of Title 18 United States Code, Section 371, 3571(b)(3), as charged in Count 1 of the Indictment.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/ COMM ORDER	The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: Sixteen (16) months.

The Court ORDERS the defendant to pay to the United States a special assessment of $100.00, to the Clerk of the Court.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $3,954,009.75, to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the Probation Office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as set forth on the list attached to this judgment.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-defendants, Adam Gilman, Bryan Laurienti, David Montesano, Curtiss Parker, Troy Peters, and Donald Samaria in Docket No. CR03-620; co-participant James Dale Green, Jr., in Docket No. CR 03-395; and co-participant Gregory DuBois Walker in Docket No., CR03-611, for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment.

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least $500 shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive approximately proportional payment unless another priority order or percentage payment is specified in this judgment.

Pursuant to 18 U. S. C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U. S. C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order no. 01-05.

USA vs. JOHN WILLIAM LAURIENTI*Docket No.: CR 03-620-TJH

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, John Laurienti, is, hereby, committed on Count 1 of the 24 Count Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of Sixteen (16) months.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U.S. Probation Office and General Order 318.
2. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substances abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, saliva and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs and alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
3. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential chemical dependency treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of alcohol addiction or alcohol dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of alcohol, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer.
4. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's alcohol dependency to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U. S. C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer.
5. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
6. When not employed at least part-time and/or enrolled in an educational or vocational program, the defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation Office.
7. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee or otherwise, in any business involving stock sales without the express approval of the Probation Officer prior to engagement in such employment. Further, the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer.
8. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
9. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall apply monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, 60 days from the date of this judgment. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at 901 19th Street, Denver, Colorado.

The court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment of alcohol dependency. Further re-disclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

The court informs the defendant of his right to appeal. It is further ordered that the defendant shall surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on NOVEMBER 2, 2009 on or before 12 noon, or if no institution has been designated, the defendant is ordered to surrender to the United States Marshal's Office, located at 901 19th Street, Denver, Colorado. The court recommends to the Bureau of Prisons to designate this defendant to the Inglewood, Colorado facility.

USA vs. JOHN WILLIAM LAURIENTIDocket No.: CR 03-620-TJH

The bond of defendant to be exonerated upon surrendering.

On Government's motion, all remaining count(s)/underlying indictment/information are hereby ordered dismissed. The court further orders bond exonerated upon self surrender date.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below).

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

While the defendant is on probation or supervised release pursuant to this judgment:

1. The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state or local crime;
2. the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the written permission of the court or probation officer;
3. the defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
4. the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
5. the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
6. the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
7. the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least 10 days prior to any change in residence or employment;
8. the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
9. the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed or administered;
10. the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
11. the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer;
12. the defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
13. the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court;
14. as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to conform the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement;
15. the defendant shall, upon release from any period of custody, report to the probation officer within 72 hours;
16. and, for felony cases only: not possess a firearm, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon.

X The defendant will also comply with the following special conditions pursuant to General Order 01-05 (set forth below).

USA vs. JOHN WILLIAM LAURIENTI*Docket No.: CR 03-620-TJH*STATUTORY PROVISIONS PERTAINING TO PAYMENT AND COLLECTION OF FINANCIAL SANCTIONS

The defendant shall pay interest on a fine or restitution of more than $2,500, unless the court waives interest or unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth (15th) day after the date of the judgment pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(f)(1). Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(g). Interest and penalties pertaining to restitution, however, are not applicable for offenses completed prior to April 24, 1996.

If all or any portion of a fine or restitution ordered remains unpaid after the termination of supervision, the defendant shall pay the balance as directed by the United States Attorney's Office. 18 U.S.C. §3613.

The defendant shall notify the United States Attorney within thirty (30) days of any change in the defendant's mailing address or residence until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments are paid in full. 18 U.S.C. §3612(b)(1)(F).

The defendant shall notify the Court through the Probation Office, and notify the United States Attorney of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay a fine or restitution, as required by 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). The Court may also accept such notification from the government or the victim, and may, on its own motion or that of a party or the victim, adjust the manner of payment of a fine or restitution-pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). See also 18 U.S.C. §3572(d)(3) and for probation 18 U.S.C. §3563(a)(7).

Payments shall be applied in the following order:

1. Special assessments pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3013;
2. Restitution, in this sequence:
 - Private victims (individual and corporate),
 - Providers of compensation to private victims,
 - The United States as victim;
3. Fine;
4. Community restitution, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3663(c); and
5. Other penalties and costs.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS FOR PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall provide to the Probation Officer: (1) a signed release authorizing credit report inquiries; (2) federal and state income tax returns or a signed release authorizing their disclosure and (3) an accurate financial statement, with supporting documentation as to all assets, income and expenses of the defendant. In addition, the defendant shall not apply for any loan or open any line of credit without prior approval of the Probation Officer.

The defendant shall maintain one personal checking account. All of defendant's income, "monetary gains," or other pecuniary proceeds shall be deposited into this account, which shall be used for payment of all personal expenses. Records of all other bank accounts, including any business accounts, shall be disclosed to the Probation Officer upon request.

The defendant shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset with a fair market value in excess of $500 without approval of the Probation Officer until all financial obligations imposed by the Court have been satisfied in full.

These conditions are in addition to any other conditions imposed by this judgment.
